

STATISTICS AT A GLANCE

Program attendance by type 2025 vs 2024

Metric	Jan 2025 - Aug 2025	Jan 2024 - Aug 2024	Difference
Adult Program Attendance	3,581	3,622	-1%
General Interest Program Attendance	1,469	527	179%
Preschool Program Attendance	3,582	2,022	77%
School Aged Program Attendance	3,213	3,035	6%
Young Adult Program Attendance	316	81	290%

Children's librarian, Dustin Nordt, shares library programming information at the Farmers Branch Fire Department Open House & Safety Fair on Sept. 27th.

MONTHLY SNAPSHOTS

On September 16th, Emergency Management Coordinator Luke Parten, Officer Michael Britton, and Fire Inspector Wendy Kimpton teach the public about preparing for emergencies!

On September 27th, attendees of the Sticky Fingers cooking class learned how to cook recipes after enjoying a read aloud of the book Waiting For the Biblioburro!

UPDATES!

- On 9/17, our Toddler Storytime had 45 participants! These high numbers are a reflection of the overall success of preschool programming. Over the past year, preschool programming has averaged 36 participants per program!
- Rachel Asselta, Library Associate and Innovation Zone programming lead, was featured on the University of North Texas' Spark Makerspace podcast MINDSPARK. You can listen to the full interview here:
<https://creators.spotify.com/pod/profile/unt-spark-makerspace/>

COMING SOON!

- Sunday Paint-Along (instructor led) adult program on 10/12 at 2pm!
- Trick-or-Treat at Boo-ville at the Historical Park on 10/16. The library will be there with treats!
- All morning Storytimes from 10/21-11/4 will be held outside in the pickleball court area.
- Special election early voting in the Hub starts 10/20 and runs through 10/31. Election day 11/4.
- Understanding your Medicare Options program will take place on 11/1 at 10:30am.