

Farmers Branch Creek Flow Chronology

- October 2009- Addison applies to amend existing water rights permit
- Fall 2010- Creek construction begins
- March 2011- Citizen complaints
- March 16, 2011- Public notice to amend water rights permit
- April 11, 2011- FB letters requesting public hearing and contested case hearing
- April 13, 2011- Inflow estimated (208,000) gallons per day
- April 20, 2011- Meeting with Addison
- April 28, 2011- TCEQ denies request for public hearing
- May 9, 2011- FB letter withdrawing contested case hearing request
- May 12, 2011- City of Dallas withdraws contested case hearing request
- May 17, 2011- TCEQ acknowledges FB letter
- May 20, 2011- TCEQ approves permit amendment
- October 16, 2011- Water well installed
- May 2012- Addison begins dam project
- May 29, 2012- TCEQ receives citizen complaint
- Late June 2012- FB receives complaints
- July 2012- City Manager requests Addison to pump water from well
- July 26, 2012- Addison has only pumped 12% of required annual water for 2012 to FB
- July 27-30, 2012- Water well inoperable
- August 1, 2012- Project complete (out of creek)
- August 27, 2012- Addison & FB Staff Meeting
- September 25, 2012- Onsite Meeting with Addison
- October 5, 2012- City Manager sends proposed water agreement to Addison
- October 16, 2012- Staff presents update to City Council at Study Session
- May 3, 2013- Addison provides written response to proposed water agreement
- Summer 2013- City Manager makes multiple requests to Addison to pump water
- November 19, 2013- Staff provides update to City Council
- December 17, 2013- City Council approves hiring consultant to study low flows
- December 23, 2013- Environmental Director placed in charge of study by City Manager
- January 21, 2014- City Council approves hiring a different consultant not associated with Addison to conduct a thorough, non-biased, study
- May 9, 2014- Study provided to the City Council
- May 9, 2014- Letter sent to residents informing them of upcoming meeting and report release
- May 12, 2014- City posts report and letter on City's website
- May 20, 2014- Consultant presents report with conclusions and recommendations