

Proclamation

Office of the Mayor | City of Farmers Branch

WHEREAS After 13 years of service, CEO Tracy Eubanks is retiring from Metrocrest Services, a non-profit agency that provides a wide range of services to help families, individuals, and seniors stabilize their lives for a brighter future; and

WHEREAS Throughout Tracy's career, he has served with compassion and dedication, as evident by his service as President of the Metrocrest Area Chamber (formerly Metrocrest Chamber of Commerce), then as CEO of Metrocrest Services; and

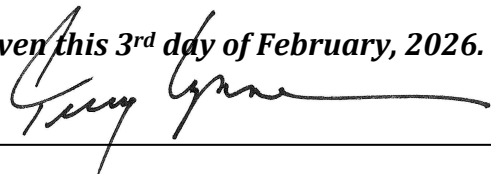

WHEREAS Tracy's commitment to service extends beyond Metrocrest Services; through his roles on the North Texas Food Bank Perot Family Campus Board and the Advisory Board for the University of North Texas Nonprofit Leadership Studies Program, he has strengthened vital community partnerships, supported food security initiatives, and helped develop the next generation of nonprofit leaders—creating a lasting positive impact across our region.; and

WHEREAS Tracy has been awarded many times for his service throughout his career, including the Metrocrest Citizen of the Year Award in 2013, the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Golden Legend recognition in 2013, the CEO Non-Profit Award on behalf of Metrocrest Services in 2021, the Community Builders Award from Carrollton Masonic Lodge in 2022, the Cliff Long Leadership Award from Coppell Chamber of Commerce in 2023, and the Jan Pruitt Legacy Award from the North Texas Food Bank in 2025; and

WHEREAS The City of Farmers Branch extends its sincere appreciation to Tracy for his many years of dedicated service, his tireless efforts to assist community members in need, and his steadfast devotion to public service. We wish him much happiness, fulfillment, and joy in his well-deserved retirement.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Terry Lynne, Mayor of the Farmers Branch City Council, do hereby honor Tracy Eubanks for his many years of service as CEO of Metrocrest Services, and offer our congratulations on his retirement.

Given this 3rd day of February, 2026.

Terry Lynne, Mayor
