Zoning Board of Adjustment

Public comment is your opportunity to address your City of Farmers Branch Board/Commission members or City Council elected officials. Whether you desire to speak during the public/citizen comment section or on a specific agenda item, your voice is important and will be heard.

For Board and Commission Meetings: Public Comment forms will be accepted via online submission or email up to 30 minutes prior to the start of the meeting and should be submitted to the presiding officer or liaison for the respective board or commission. Public Comment forms may also be submitted in person at the meeting to the presiding officer.

For City Council Meetings: Public Comment forms will be accepted via online submission or email until 5:30 p.m. the day of the meeting. Individuals submitting a request in person at the meeting shall submit their form to the City Secretary by 6:00 p.m. This process applies to all action items listed on the agenda.

There is a three (3) minute time limit for each citizen to speak with a reasonable limitation on speakers on one topic or item with a maximum of fifteen total minutes on the same topic item. All speakers shall comply with the City's Rules of Decorum and Conduct for Public Hearings and Citizen Comments which is available for review on the City's website at <https://www.farmersbranchtx.gov/598/City-Council>. The City will not tolerate unruly behavior, intimidation, disparaging or inflammatory remarks, or other attacks or insults that are not relevant to policy issues or other official business within the City's jurisdiction or authority. Violations of such rules that hinder, obstruct, interfere, or otherwise substantially disrupt the orderly conduct of the meeting may result in the loss of any time allocated to present such comments or, in the case of continued violations, be ordered to leave the meeting.

The Board/Commission or City Council is not permitted to take action on any subject raised by a speaker during the public comment portion of the meeting. However, the presiding officer may have the item placed on a future agenda for consideration, refer the item to the City Administration for further study or action; briefly state existing City policy; or provide a brief statement of factual information in response to the inquiry. The presiding officer will call the speaker by name. Please approach the podium and state your name and address prior to beginning your remarks. If you have written notes you wish to present, please furnish an extra copy for the official meeting record.

All speakers shall comply with the City's Rules of Decorum and Conduct for Public Hearings and Citizen Comments which is available for review on the City's website at <https://www.farmersbranchtx.gov/598/City-Council>. The City will not tolerate unruly behavior, intimidation, disparaging or inflammatory remarks, or other attacks or insults that are not relevant to policy issues or other official business within the City's jurisdiction or authority. Violations of such rules that hinder, obstruct, interfere, or otherwise substantially disrupt the orderly conduct of the meeting may result in the loss of any time allocated to present such comments or, in the case of continued violations, be ordered to leave the meeting.

The Board/Commission or City Council is not permitted to take action on any subject raised by a speaker during the public comment portion of the meeting. However, the presiding officer may have the item placed on a future agenda for consideration, refer the item to the City Administration for further study or action; briefly state existing City policy; or provide a brief statement of factual information in response to the inquiry. The presiding officer will call the speaker by name. Please approach the podium and state your name and address prior to beginning your remarks. If you have written notes you wish to present, please furnish an extra copy for the official meeting record.
