

Proclamation

Office of the Mayor | City of Farmers Branch

- WHEREAS March has been celebrated as Red Cross Month for more than 80 years, honoring the neighbors who make its humanitarian mission possible; and,
- WHEREAS each day, more than 30 dedicated Farmers Branch residents put on their Red Cross vest, offering hope to neighbors in need; and,
- WHEREAS the Red Cross carries out disaster relief operations in the Farmers Branch community, delivering shelter, food, and comfort to neighbors facing unexpected emergencies; and,
- WHEREAS the Red Cross holds blood drives in Farmers Branch, ensuring lifesaving care for new mothers, cancer patients, and accident victims; and,
- WHEREAS the Red Cross proudly provides critical services to Farmers Branch military members and their families, providing assistance for family support, community resources, support for wounded or ill veterans, and transitioning support for civilian life; and,
- WHEREAS within Farmers Branch and the surrounding region, Red Cross volunteers contribute countless hours to support preparedness initiatives, assist residents impacted by emergencies, and promote community safety. Their willingness to respond during challenging circumstances helps ensure that individuals and families receive assistance, resources, and comfort when they need it most.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Terry Lynne, Mayor of the Farmers Branch City Council, do hereby proclaim March 2026 as American Red Cross Month in Farmers Branch, and encourage all citizens to support its humanitarian mission throughout the month.

Given this 17th day of March, 2026.

Terry Lynne, Mayor
