

Proclamation

Office of the Mayor | City of Farmers Branch

- WHEREAS the Ms. Texas Senior America Pageant salutes all senior women with the goal of enriching and empowering the lives of seniors and promoting the senior woman in all her glory; and
- WHEREAS the pageant champions healthy aging, wellness and mental well-being among ladies who have reached the "age of elegance"; and
- WHEREAS the Queen is chosen by evening gown presentation under the philosophy that clothes do not make the woman, rather, it is the woman that makes the clothes; and
- WHEREAS contestants, who must be age 60 or older, also interview with five judges and answer questions about the contestant's community outreach, volunteer work, special interests, philosophy of life and talent; and
- WHEREAS the reigning Ms. Texas Senior America is Sandy McCravy, who has been a resident of Farmers Branch since 1969 and is the third Ms. Texas Senior America title holder from Farmers Branch. Sandy began tap dancing at age 55 and entered the pageant at age 76, with a song and dance talent from the musical, Chicago; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Phelps, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Farmers Branch in the State of Texas and on behalf of our City Council do hereby proclaim the 16th Day of May, 2017 in Farmers Branch as

MS. TEXAS SENIOR AMERICA SANDY McCRAVY DAY

Given this 16th day of May, 2017 at Farmers Branch, Texas
