

Proclamation

City of Farmers Branch School Board Recognition Month

- WHEREAS the mission of the public schools is to meet the diverse educational needs of all children and to empower them to become competent, productive contributors to a democratic society and an ever-changing world; and
- WHEREAS local school board members are committed to the success of our children as they work to ensure high achievement for each child with educational programs tailored to meet the individual needs of the child; and
- WHEREAS Local school board members are responsible for providing leadership that ensures a clear, shared community vision of public education for their schools, that sets high educational standards for each student through continuous improvement, and requires the effective and efficient operation of their district; and
- WHEREAS local school board members adapt public policy to give voice to that leadership and employ a superintendent to administer board policy, and are responsible for ensuring the structure that provides a solid foundation for our school system; and
- WHEREAS local school board members are strong advocates for public education and are responsible for communicating the needs of the school district to the public and the public's expectations to the district; and
- WHEREAS Serving on a school board requires an unselfish devotion to time and service to carry on the mission and business of the school district without compensation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert C. Dye, as Mayor of the City of Farmers Branch do hereby declare my appreciation to the members of the Carrollton-Farmers Branch Independent School District School Board and proclaim the month of January 2019, as
