Receive an update on Manske Library.

BACKGROUND:

During the Library Board's presentation to the City Council during the Study Session on April 16th, the City Council asked for a recommendation about the future of the Library: continue towards renovation or stop renovation plans and work towards a bond election for a new library. Library Board Chair Bonnie Newman will bring forward the Library Board's recommendation to renovate the Manske Library.

DISCUSSION:

Council will discuss the recommendation from the Library Board and determine the policy direction for the future of the Library.
